PROJECTS

Fit nation: | GitHub | Livelihood

Dec' 2025

- Engineered a full-stack health and fitness dashboard that enables users to track BMI history, manage daily tasks, monitor water intake, and maintain activity streaks.
- Formulated task completion analytics utilizing interactive pie charts to visualize daily progress, habit consistency, and overall user performance metrics over time.
- Synchronized Google Fit API to fetch real-time biometric data such as step counts, significantly improving platform personalization and real-world application utility.
- Designed a secure streak system featuring anti-cheat logic and a stable, responsive glass morphism UI to provide a high-quality and modern digital user experience.
- Finalized a scalable, user-centric health platform that combines biometric monitoring and data analytics with a sleek interface to promote a healthier daily lifestyle.
- Tech Stack: React, Node.js, Express, MongoDB, Google Fit API, Recharts.

Property Management System: | GitHub

Apr' 2025

- Architected a robust full-stack web application allowing users to buy, sell, and rent properties through a highly intuitive and fully responsive interface.
- Constructed the backend architecture using PHP while implementing rigorous user authentication protocols and secure data handling for all property management tasks.
- Leveraged MySQL to efficiently organize and manage complex property listings alongside encrypted user records for high-performance database querying and storage.
- Embedded dynamic search and advanced filtering features to maximize accessibility and streamline the property discovery process for diverse real estate portfolios.
- Provided a fully functional property platform that simplified complex real estate transactions through smart navigation and efficient server-side data processing logic.
- Tech Stack: HTML, Tailwind CSS, JavaScript, PHP, MySQL.
